Subject : Letter of appreciation.

Greetings from Nagaon University. I take the privilege to extend my sincere gratitude to you for your esteemed presence and valuable contribution as a Resource Person at the AI Summit jointly organized by Nagaon University and Rajmohan Nath Foundation on 26th February, 2026.

Your insightful presentation and deliberations on the emerging dimensions of Artificial Intelligence significantly enhanced the standard of the summit. The enthusiastic interaction witnessed during your session reflected the impact of your inspiring discourse.

The success of the AI Summit stands as a significant achievement for Nagaon University, and your contribution played a pivotal role in achieving its objectives. We deeply appreciate the time, effort, and intellectual commitment you extended to make the event meaningful and forward-looking.

As a University striving to advance research and innovation in emerging technologies, we look forward with optimism to continued association and collaboration with you. We sincerely hope this engagement will pave the way for future partnerships in academic programs, joint research initiatives, expert lectures, and institutional development in the field of Artificial Intelligence.

We would be honored to work closely with you in future endeavors and to welcome you again to Nagaon University.

With warm regards and best wishes.

(Hitesh Deka)
